A little more about our Speakers & Program...

Celeste Linde - Celeste is back to update industry on her recent research project that reviewed gaps in knowledge of the emergent pathogen Gnomoniopsis smithogilvyi causing nut rot in chestnuts. We ask Celeste - where to from here?

Jane Casey - Gourmet Chestnuts

Long term chestnut grower who has offered her experience in this complex area of employing casuals and backpackers.

Belinda Neville - Nuts for Life

Program Manager. Belinda has twenty years' experience working in the food industry sector, with significant experience in regulatory affairs and in preparing relevant and effective nutrition and health communications.

Nuts for Life is a health education initiative from the Australian nut industry. Nuts for Life are Australia's leading authority on the nutrition and health benefits of nuts.

Their mission is to promote regular nut consumption by collating the latest evidence-based information, and informing Australians about the positive impact regular nut consumption can have on their health.

Dr John Kapeleris CEO - Cherrp®

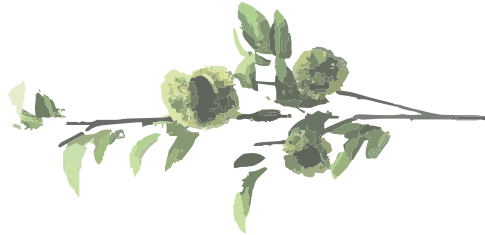

A leading environmental organisation that provides unique and customised wildlife management solutions.

Founded with the purpose for overcoming the long-standing challenge of coexistence between humans and bird species, Cherrp® solutions provide opportunities to promote improved interactions, primarily with respect to - commercial outcomes and social outcomes.

Louise Benini - New to the industry being engaged as the CAI Marketing Coordinator, but a long term lover of chestnuts, Louise will take us through the Marketing program.
